

The Luminous Ladies

In the subtle glow of the night, four slender silhouettes rise on their stilts, draped in majestic dresses that change colors, radiating mesmerizing lights. Their imposing headdresses, also illuminated, complete these almost unreal apparitions.

The diaphanous fabrics, with refined patterns, seem to float like luminous halos, while their made-up faces accentuate the theatrical intensity and dreamlike mystery of the scene.

Carried by the enchanting notes of classical music, this travelling show gracefully blends baroque splendour and nocturnal poetry, offering spectators a waking dream.
